Born Free! The Concert

Redland entertainer Ludy Sigrist is “returning where he left off”, with a concert being staged at the Pacific Resort, Cleveland.

Entitled “Born Free”, the concert represents freedom, love and meditation in song.

Ludy will present all his favourite songs and artists, including a smattering of Neil Diamond songs from the New World trio and by John Barry. He is joined on stage by Rosemarie Arthars and members of the New World trio.

A great night of entertainment and the almost capacity crowd proved that good local talent is appreciated by Brisbanites...

Fazal Rhaman

'BORN FREE The Concert' is the creation of renowned Brisbane musician, singer-songwriter and producer Ludy Sigrist, who decided to once more make wholesome, soul-uplifting and beautiful music, this time built around the theme of 'Freedom'.

It was in fact Brisbane's own 4BH 882 Radio Station who, in the 1980's, aired a number of Ludy's songs including his originals 'She Is Calling Me Away' and 'I'd Like To Know' as well as a delightful version of the 16th Century and well known 'Plaisir d'Amour'.

The Concert's Program is a delight for all those who love beautiful music and focuses on the composer and their music including John Barry, Neil Diamond, John Denver, Don Mc Clean.... a touch of Montovani, Puccini and Christmas, songwriting from the 60's, and last but not least.... the release of Ludy's composition.

Ludy said he hoped to incorporate the message of safety for children as part of this performance in support of the children's safety awareness program.

'FOR THE CHILDREN'.
